

WINE ROOMS WINE CLASSES

Wines of France £35

The trains might be on strike in La République En Grève, but we can still take you on a wonderful journey!

From the northern reaches of Burgundy and the Loire, through the Rhône valley and Bordeaux, all the way to the sunny gems of the Roussillon and Languedoc, France sets the bar high for the classics of the wine world.

There are some seriously great styles and grape varieties there, come and taste your way through France!

New world Vs old world wines £30

Old world wines are elegant, restrained and refined, whilst new world wines are big, bold and juicy. Or are they? Here we will discuss the common impressions of old world and new world red wines, showing six reds- some that fit the stereotype and others that go against the grain.
