With largest wine production in the world, endless bureaucracy, a sea of regions and an untold amount of varieties Italy can seem like the onion of the wine world. In this class we are aiming to demystify the great Apennine Peninsula and her Islands looking at everything from the ethereal and elegant high tannin wines of the North through to the rustic and orange wines in the South.

Tickets can be purchased at each venue, alternatively email us at michael@winerrooms.london

Classes last about an hour.
